

The Outlook

287 Fourth Avenue
New York

Office of Theodore Roosevelt

March 25th, 1913.

My dear Mr Forbes:

I appreciate your letter so much that I must send you just one line of perspnal thanks and acknowledgment for all that you have written.

Faithfully yours,

T. Roosevelt

Mr George W. Forbes,
West End Branch Public Library,
Boston, Mass.

OYSTER BAY,
LONG ISLAND, N.Y.

My dear Sir:

I thank you for your letter and appreciate it. All I am trying to do is to preach what seems to me to be decent Americanism.

Sincerely yours,

Theodore Roosevelt
per M.

Jan. 17/16.

METROPOLITAN
432 FOURTH AVENUE NEW YORK

Office of
Theodore Roosevelt

April 28th, 1916.

My dear Mr. Forbes:

That's a particularly nice letter of yours and I must send you just this line of personal thanks and acknowledgment.

Sincerely yours,

T. Roosevelt

Geo. W. Forbes, Esq.,
18 Wellington Street,
Boston, Mass.